

A decorative graphic consisting of blue circuit lines with circular nodes, extending horizontally from the left and right sides of the central text box.

WHAT'S NEW IN AVAYA AURA 8.1

(... AND SOME OTHER PRODUCTS)

OS AND PLATFORM UPDATES

- Support for VMware vSphere 6.7
 - Removed support for 5.5
- AVP base moved from ESXi 6.0 to 6.5
 - VM Console in AVP Utilities
- Browser Support Updates
 - Firefox 65, 66 and 67
 - Internet Explorer 11
- IX Messaging (Officelinx) support for Exchange 2019, Nuance 10 engine
- AACCC 7.1 on Windows Server 2016 (and 2012 R2)

PLATFORM CHANGES

- System Manager
 - Profile 1 no Longer Supported
 - New Profile 4 (300,000 Users, 28 SMs, 5000 BSMs)
- Session Manager
 - New Profile 6 (66,700 SIP Devices)
- ASBCE
 - AVP Support
 - New Portwell CAF 0251 replaces CAD 0230
 - Drops Support for Portwell CAD 0280

PLATFORM CHANGES IN 8.0

- Software-only Deployment on RHEL
 - For Cloud Platforms (AWS, Azure, Google,...)
- Support for Hyper-V
- Much Improved IPv6 Support
- Security Hardening

TELEPHONY FEATURES

- SIP Endpoint Parity Improvements
 - Busy Indicator Buttons
 - Crisis Alert
 - No Hold Conference
- SM Routing Based on Originating Dial Pattern
- IP Phone Firmware Fileserver on S8300E
- 16-digit Extensions (enhanced support)
- G.722 Wideband codec in AES DMCC

TELEPHONY FEATURES NEW IN 8.0

- Multiple Appearance Directory Numbers
- Avaya Device Adapter for
 - Unistim Phones (1100, 1200 and 2400 series)
 - Digital and Analog Phones using CS1000 Media Gateway Controllers
- Session Manager Clustering
- AMM Integration into Presence Services

CLIENT FEATURES

- Equinox renamed to IX Workplace
- IM Message Delivery and Read Indications
- SSO Support for SAML
- Contact Groups
- USB Call Control with Avaya L100 Series Headsets

AACC FEATURES

- Avaya Workspaces (optional)
- Video Contact Type
- Equinox Softphone for Agents
- Avaya Vantage Endpoint Support

